1975

Reportedly a backpatch, this is the earliest known patch issued by the Fraternity. It features a red outline of Fort Schuyler with an Eagle and fleur-de-lis, anchor, propeller, the training ship and the words "EAGLE SCOUT FRATERNITY". The words "MARITIME COLLEGE 1975 FORT SCHUYLER N.Y." ring the outside border.

1987

A white canvas patch with an orange border. "SUNRISE DISTRICT FALL CAMPOREE SUNY NYMMA" in black letters circles the border. In the center is a tall ship with the year 1987. Below the ship are an anchor, fleur-di-lis and the image of a Cadet shaking hands with a Scout in uniform. This version features thick lettering.

1987

This version features thin lettering. The camporee ran out of patches, and a 2nd order was placed, which came back with thinner lettering.

2001

For the 2001 camporee patch – the center is a blue field with the outline of Fort Schuyler in red, an Eagle, fleur-de-lis, anchor, propeller, TSES and the words “EAGLE SCOUT FRATERNITY”. The words “MARITIME COLLEGE 1975 FORT SCHUYLER N.Y.” ring the outside of the blue field, and 2001 is embroidered in white. A red border surrounds this with the words “ANNUAL SPRING CAMPOREE AT SUNY MARITIME COLLEGE”.

Circa 2001

More information is needed about this patch. It is possible it was an error or sew-out. It is unclear if this patch was ever issued. The 2001 is missing from the blue field and “SUNY” is misspelled as “SUNNY”.
